Re: Notice (2-3): Moore Court common law/lore cases ready for trial by jury (7th amendment) scheduling

Greetings Robert:

"I": [Wo]Man; Shannon; write to you; Robert E. Mullen; the Man who sometimes acts as corporate employee in the position as Hon. Chief Justice of Maine Superior Court.

"I": [wo]man; present myself to you as friend of the court to give notice and aid and assist in the trial by jury scheduling of the following public venue contracted "lawful" actions (not "legal" actions):

Moore Court: Claimant No. RF 479 918 022 US at PORSC-CV-2021-00279
(Justice John O'Neil name is at this case file)

- My above lawful action is tort "Claim", not complaint, "wrong of trespass by way of forgery that interferes with right to property".
- "I": [wo]man; am not acting as an accommodating party to a legal or commercial entity;
"I": [wo]man; am lawfully present as myself, i am not re-presented [i am like manner sui juris and not like manner pro se]
- My action is with summons service
- My action requires 2 venue assignments; it is the wish of i: [wo]man, that you Robert, as Chief Manager of People's Public Venue Cumberland County Courthouse, now arrange assignment of a 1st witness "Presider" [Magistrate], see Exhibit A and 2nd witness "Clerk".
- Please find my signed order for witnesses in case file CV-21-279 at Superior Court.
- Please find my signed order attached for the scheduling of trial by jury.

Robert, i hope you are having a nice summer.

Kind regards,

Exhibit A

Summary definitions to aid and assist the court in the context of a court of record common law action

Claim (n): (1) a demand for something as due; an assertion of a right or an alleged right (2) a basis for demanding something; a title or right; open to challenge

Claim (v): (1) to assert and demand the recognition of (a right, title, possession, etc.); assert one's right to, (2) to state to be true, especially when open to question; assert or maintain

Property: All that I claim is mine and exclusive of all others

Presider: Moderator, another name for a court of record Magistrate

Magistrate: Quoting Geoffrey C. Hazard Jr. University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School: a "simplistic conception of the common law ... [Magistrate]... is that of a passive moderator between presentations organized and directed by rival advocates".

Unlawful act: doing wrong, harm or not giving what is rightfully due, to another.

Proper contract: one where all parties knowingly, willingly, intentionally with full disclosure and no threat, duress or coercion enter into expressed agreement.

Illegal act: an act that violates a *proper contract or agreement. A statute or code or the like is a contract if *proper. A man/woman who does not contract to statutes, or the like, is not subject to violations of said Statute; is not liable.

Common law/lore is the law of the land. Nonvoter people who do not consent to be governed by representative or contract, are not liable for purported "illegal acts" related to purported violations of legal fiction-based Statutes, Codes and or the like.

Common law/lore supersedes legal fiction. Example: a self-governing man who has done no wrong is not subject to liability for violation of a legislative Statue or the like legal fictions.

Person: a man/woman contractually acting as an accommodating party, as surety, to a legal or commercial entity (corporation, trust, etc.).

Legal fiction: something assumed in law to be fact irrespective of the truth or accuracy of that assumption.

Color of law: refers to an act done under the appearance of legal authorization, when in fact, no such right existed. It applies when a person is acting under real or apparent government authority.

Maine Title 16 § 402: Every court of this State shall take judicial notice of the common law and statutes of every state, territory and other jurisdiction of the United States.

Summary definitions to aid and assist the court in the context of a court of record common law action

Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., 425, 426

COMMON LAW ACTIONS are such as will lie, on the particular facts, at common law, without the aid of a statute. - Black's Law Dictionary 5th Edition

COURT OF RECORD

A "court of record" is a judicial tribunal having attributes and exercising functions independently of the person of the magistrate designated generally to hold it, and proceeding according to the course of common law, its acts and proceedings being enrolled for a perpetual memorial. Jones v. Jones, 188 Mo.App. 220, 175 S.W. 227, 229; Ex parte Gladhill, 8 Metc. Mass., 171, per Shaw, C.J. See, also, Ledwith v. Rosalsky, 244 N.Y. 406, 155 N.E. 688, 689.

1820 CONSTITUTION OF MAINE Article 1 at Section 20 Trial by Jury

Trial by jury: "In all civil suits and in all controversies concerning property, the parties shall have right to a trial by jury, except in cases where it has heretofore been otherwise practiced; the party claiming the right may be heard by himself and his counsel, or either, at his election."

Cornell Law:

Seventh Amendment precedents "require [d] trial by jury in actions unheard of at common law, provided that the action involves rights and remedies of the sort traditionally enforced in an action at law, rather than in an action at equity or admiralty." ... The primary purpose of the Amendment is to preserve "the common law distinction between the province of the court and that of the jury, whereby, in the absence of express or implied consent to the contrary, issues of law are resolved by the court and issues of fact are to be determined by the jury under appropriate instructions by the court. ... When a state court is enforcing a federally created right, of which the right to trial by jury is a substantial part, the state may not eliminate trial by jury as to one or more elements"

CONCLUSION

- Courts of Record must proceed according to the course of the common law, without the aid of a statute.
- Courts which proceed according to statutory jurisdiction are inferior courts, and may be sued directly, without appealing.
- Courts designated as courts of record may act as statutory courts if all parties agree.
- The type of relief demanded by the Claimant determines if the court will operate as a court of record or not, on a case-by-case basis.
- The "judge" has no discretion in a court of record, and can only do ministerial functions, such as signing Claimant/Prosecutor orders.
- No judgment of a court of record can be appealed. There is no higher court.
- There is no such thing as a "common law court." All courts of record can hear actions at (common) law.

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Rule 45(c): Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoenas.

- 1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court for which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings, a reasonable attorney's fee, and other reasonable expenses incurred in seeking the sanction.
- 2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things, or inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing, or trial.
(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of any justice or judge of the court for which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.
- 3) (A) On timely motion, the court for which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:
 - i. fails to allow a reasonable time for compliance;
 - ii. requires a resident of this state who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to attend a deposition outside the county wherein that person resides or is employed or transacts business in person or a distance of more than 100 miles one way, whichever is greater, unless the court otherwise orders; requires a nonresident of the state who is not a party or an officer of a party to attend outside the county wherein that person is served with a subpoena, or farther than 100 miles from the place of service, unless some other convenient place is fixed by an order of court;
 - iii. requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or
 - iv. subjects a person to undue burden.
(B) If a subpoena (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or (iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles one way to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot otherwise be met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

Rule 45(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

- 1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.
- 2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Exhibit A

Summary definitions to aid and assist the court in the context of a court of record common law action

Claim (n): (1) a demand for something as due; an assertion of a right or an alleged right (2) a basis for demanding something; a title or right; open to challenge

Claim (v): (1) to assert and demand the recognition of (a right, title, possession, etc.); assert one's right to, (2) to state to be true, especially when open to question; assert or maintain

Property: All that i claim is mine and exclusive of all others

Presider: Moderator, another name for a court of record Magistrate

Magistrate: Quoting Geoffrey C. Hazard Jr. University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School: a "simplistic conception of the common law ...[Magistrate]... is that of a passive moderator between presentations organized and directed by rival advocates".

Unlawful act: doing wrong, harm or not giving what is rightfully due, to another.

Proper contract: one where all parties knowingly, willingly, intentionally with full disclosure and no threat, duress or coercion enter into expressed agreement.

Illegal act: an act that violates a *proper contract or agreement. A statute or code or the like is a contract if *proper. A man/woman who does not contract to statutes, or the like, is not subject to violations of said Statue; is not liable.

Common law/lore is the law of the land. Nonvoter people who do not consent to be governed by representative or contract, are not liable for purported "illegal acts" related to purported violations of legal fiction-based Statutes, Codes and or the like.

Common law/lore supersedes legal fiction. Example: a self-governing man who has done no wrong is not subject to liability for violation of a legislative Statue or the like legal fictions.

Person: a man/woman contractually acting as an accommodating party, as surety, to a legal or commercial entity (corporation, trust, etc.).

Legal fiction: something assumed in law to be fact irrespective of the truth or accuracy of that assumption.

Color of law: refers to an act done under the appearance of legal authorization, when in fact, no such right existed. It applies when a person is acting under real or apparent government authority.

Maine Title 16 § 402: Every court of this State shall take judicial notice of the common law and statutes of every state, territory and other jurisdiction of the United States.

Summary definitions to aid and assist the court in the context of a court of record common law action

Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., 425, 426

COMMON LAW ACTIONS are such as will lie, on the particular facts, at common law, without the aid of a statute. - Black's Law Dictionary 5th Edition

COURT OF RECORD

A "court of record" is a judicial tribunal having attributes and exercising functions independently of the person of the magistrate designated generally to hold it, and proceeding according to the course of common law, its acts and proceedings being enrolled for a perpetual memorial. Jones v. Jones, 188 Mo.App. 220, 175 S.W. 227, 229; Ex parte Gladhill, 8 Metc. Mass., 171, per Shaw, C.J. See, also, Ledwith v. Rosalsky, 244 N.Y. 406, 155 N.E. 688, 689.

1820 CONSTITUTION OF MAINE Article 1 at Section 20 Trial by Jury

Trial by jury: "In all civil suits and in all controversies concerning property, the parties shall have right to a trial by jury, except in cases where it has heretofore been otherwise practiced: the party claiming the right may be heard by himself and his counsel, or either, at his election."

Cornell Law:

Seventh Amendment precedents "require [d] trial by jury in actions unheard of at common law, provided that the action involves rights and remedies of the sort traditionally enforced in an action at law, rather than in an action at equity or admiralty."... The primary purpose of the Amendment is to preserve "the common law distinction between the province of the court and that of the jury, whereby, in the absence of express or implied consent to the contrary, issues of law are resolved by the court and issues of fact are to be determined by the jury under appropriate instructions by the court. ... When a state court is enforcing a federally created right, of which the right to trial by jury is a substantial part, the state may not eliminate trial by jury as to one or more elements"

CONCLUSION

- Courts of Record must proceed according to the course of the common law, without the aid of a statute.
- Courts which proceed according to statutory jurisdiction are inferior courts, and may be sued directly, without appealing.
- Courts designated as courts of record may act as statutory courts if all parties agree.
- The type of relief demanded by the Claimant determines if the court will operate as a court of record or not, on a case-by-case basis.
- The "judge" has no discretion in a court of record, and can only do ministerial functions, such as signing Claimant/Prosecutor orders.
- No judgment of a court of record can be appealed. There is no higher court.
- There is no such thing as a "common law court." All courts of record can hear actions at (common) law.

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Rule 45(c): Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoenas.

- 1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court for which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings, a reasonable attorney's fee, and other reasonable expenses incurred in seeking the sanction.
- 2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things, or inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing, or trial.
(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of any justice or judge of the court for which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.
- 3) (A) On timely motion, the court for which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:
 - i. fails to allow a reasonable time for compliance;
 - ii. requires a resident of this state who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to attend a deposition outside the county wherein that person resides or is employed or transacts business in person or a distance of more than 100 miles one way, whichever is greater, unless the court otherwise orders; requires a nonresident of the state who is not a party or an officer of a party to attend outside the county wherein that person is served with a subpoena, or farther than 100 miles from the place of service, unless some other convenient place is fixed by an order of court;
 - iii. requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or
 - iv. subjects a person to undue burden.
 (B) If a subpoena (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or (iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles one way to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot otherwise be met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

Rule 45(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

- 1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.
- 2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

ADA Notice: The Maine Judicial Branch complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation contact the Court Access Coordinator, accessibility@courts.maine.gov, or a court clerk.

Summons Service

[like manner M.R.Civ.P. 4(d)]

The [Claimant]: Prosecutor has begun a Claim against you at, not in, Superior Court, which holds sessions at (street address) 205 Newbury St, City of Portland, County of Cumberland, Maine. If you wish to oppose this Claim, you as man/woman and not as an accommodating party to a legal or commercial entity, must acknowledge receipt of this summons within 20 days and consent to appear before trial by jury in court of record under common law, date to be noticed once scheduled by Superior Court venue. You must serve your acknowledgement of receipt of summons by delivering a copy of it by hand or by mail to the man; Stephen Monaghan at 14 Eastfield Rd, Cape Elizabeth, Maine [near 04107] and by hand or mail to Superior Court 205 Newbury Street, Portland, ME 04101.

Important Warning: If you fail to acknowledge your receipt within the time stated above, or if, after you acknowledge receipt, you fail to make presence at any time the court notifies you to do so, a judgment by default may be entered against you in your absence for the money damages or other relief demanded by the Claim. If this occurs, your employer may be ordered to pay part of your wages to the Claimant or your property, including banks accounts and you real estate may be taken to satisfy the judgment. If you intend to oppose this Claim, do not fail to acknowledge receipt within the requested time and be present at the to be scheduled date at Court.

If you believe the Claimants' Claim is all or in part untrue or if you have a claim of your own against the Claimant/s, you should seek common lore help if needed. You may ask the clerk of court for information as to places where you may seek lawful assistance.

CIVIL ACTION NO:

COMPLAINT

RE:
69 Veranda Street, Portland, ME 04103

Mortgage:
November 22, 2005
Book 23455, Page 67

NOW COMES the Plaintiff, U.S. Bank Trust, N.A., as Trustee for LSF9 Master Participation Trust, by and through its attorneys, Doonan, Graves & Longoria, LLC, and hereby complains against the Defendant, Shannon R. Moore a/k/a Shannon Slaughter, as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) (Diversity) because the Plaintiff and Defendant are citizens of different states and the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of seventy-five thousand and 00/100 ($75,000.00) dollars, exclusive of interest and costs. Any Court of the United States, upon the filing of an appropriate pleading, may declare the rights and other legal relations of any interested party seeking such declaration, whether or not further relief is or could be sought under 28 U.S.C. § 2201.
2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because the object of this litigation is a Note executed under seal currently owned and held by U.S. Bank

REC'D CUMB CLERKS OF
JUL 12 '21 PM3:46

- p) Additionally, issue a money judgment against the Defendant, Shannon R. Moore a/k/a Shannon Slaughter, as affected by Defendant's discharge in bankruptcy and, accordingly, this action does not seek any personal liability on the part of the Defendant, but only seeks in rem judgment against the property, and in favor of the Plaintiff, U.S. Bank Trust, N.A., as Trustee for LSF9 Master Participation Trust, in the amount of Two Hundred Eighty-Three Thousand Two Hundred Thirty-Three and 05/100 ($283,233.05) Dollars, the total debt owed under the Note plus interest and costs including attorney's fees and costs;
- q) For such other and further relief as this Honorable Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully Submitted,
U.S. Bank Trust, N.A., as Trustee for LSF9
Master Participation Trust,
By its attorneys,

Terms of contract with courthouse venue:

1. "i": [Wo]man; Shannon am exercising equal contract terms as is provided in the communication attached labeled Exhibit 2.
2. i'm filing my claim by way of my mobile Moore Court Claimant No. (Registered Mail) RA 479 918 022 US, in this fashion, i claim conusance and bring my claim into other courts concurrently and save public expense.
3. My action is personal injury tort: wrong of trespass, forgery [defamation].
4. "i": [Wo]man; Shannon move this as [Wo]man and not as an accommodating party to a legal or commercial entity (not as [a] fiction); i am not [a] "person" subject to legal rules or statutes but instead [wo]man subject to lawful rules; i am not a Plaintiff; i am not pro se; there is no "Defendant", only Wrongdoer/s; i have no attorney so the Wrongdoer has no attorney; this action is not a complaint; i am not complaining; my action is [wo]man making tort claim as only man/[wo]man can make claim. My action is not "in" Superior court but "before" or "at" Superior Court at the People's Public Court Venue.
5. As i am not an accommodation party to [a] legal or commercial entity, i: [wo]man, wish and require making presence at [a] court of record, under common law, where i: [wo]man; can be recognized as [wo]man before the court. [like manner ME Title 16 §402: Common law and statutes: Every court of this State shall take judicial notice of the common law and statutes of every state, territory and other jurisdiction of the United States].
6. In a court of record under common law, the (magistrate) is independent of the tribunal: in short, the people making jury for the trial by jury are the trier of facts and law. i require this Venue assign 1st first witness, "Presider" (Magistrate) and 2nd witness, "Clerk" to witness and undersign my orders, as Prosecutor, upon jury approval.
7. These items, 1-7, are the contract terms of my transaction with this Court Venue: Venue acceptance of my payment is Venue acceptance of my terms.

Venue filing contract cost: $ 175 Venue trial by jury contract cost $ 300

Hello Caitlin,

Thank you for letting me know about the fee or waiver of fee requirement for my claim.

i am having a friend prepare the fee payment for me and he asked if i may have you complete and return the copy of this communication with the pre-paid envelope provided.

Here is my recapitulation; my request herein is not for advice but just the venue contract cost to move my action.

1. i'm filing a claim by way of my mobile Monaghan Court using my claimant no. (Registered Mail) RA 479 917 999 US, in this fashion, i may claim conusance and bring my claim into other courts concurrently and save public expense.
2. My action is a personal injury tort: wrong of trespass, forgery [defamation]
3. "i"; man; Stephen; am moving this as a man and not as an accommodating party to a legal or commercial entity (not as a fiction); i am not a Plaintiff; i am not pro se; this action is not a complaint; i am not complaining; my action is a man making a tort claim as only a man can make a claim.
4. As i am not an accommodating party to a legal or commercial entity, i: man, wish and require to make presence at a court of record, under common law, where i: man; can make presence and be recognized as man before the court.
5. i wish to contract for a "trial by jury" at the Maine Superior Court, Portland.

Venue Filing cost: $ 175.00

Date 5/25/21

Venue trial by jury cost $ 300.00

Date 5/25/21

Thank you and best regards
